2. Anty Dowry Campaign

Pavanatma College conducted the "Anty Dowry Campaign" on July 22, 2021, with the aim of raising public awareness regarding the perils of dowry. The campaign, organized in association with the Taluka Legal Service Committee Udumbanchola, was conducted through Google Meet, facilitating widespread participation. Through interactive sessions and informative presentations, the campaign emphasized the detrimental impact of dowry on individuals and society. Participants were educated about legal provisions against dowry and encouraged to take a stand against this social evil. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of fostering public awareness and promoting societal change regarding the issue of dowry.

The poster is yellow with black and red text. At the top, it features the logo of the Taluk Legal Services Committee, Udumbanchola. Below the logo, the text reads: "TALUK LEGAL SERVICES COMMITTEE, UDUMBANCHOLA In Association With Pavanatma College, Murickassery". The central part of the poster has a graphic of a woman in a red sari standing next to a scale of justice, with the text "ANTI DOWRY CAMPAIGN" in large, bold, red letters. Below this, it says "Taluk Level Inauguration ON 22.07.2021 THURSDAY @ 3.PM". The program details are listed below: "Inaugural Address Sri. Philip Thomas Chairman (Special Judge) TLSC Udumbanchola", "Presidential Speech Dr. Johnson V Principal, Pavanatma College Murickassery", and "Subject Presentation Kumeri. 3. Speech competition for school students

The National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a speech competition for school students on November 14, 2021, coinciding with Children's Day. The event aimed to provide a platform for young minds to express their thoughts and ideas on various topics relevant to their lives and society. Participants showcased their oratory skills and shared insightful perspectives on subjects ranging from education and environment to social issues and aspirations. The competition fostered confidence, critical thinking, and communication skills among the students while commemorating the significance of Children's Day. It was a successful endeavor in promoting youth engagement and empowerment through constructive dialogue.

4. HISTO INTERFACE

On the 25th of March 2022, a program titled "Histo Interface" Tribal Settlement Visit was organized by the Dept. of History, under the guidance of our HoD Dr. Jobi John, bringing together a total of 2 teachers and 37 second Year UG students. This event took place in the Mannan Settlement, located in Kozhimala, Idukki. The objective of this program was to provide students with a unique learning experience by allowing them to interact with and learn about tribal settlements. It aimed to foster a better understanding of the culture, lifestyle, and challenges faced by tribal communities. The event was a great success, as participants actively engaged with the tribal community, Conducted programmes for them, gaining valuable insights and knowledge about their way of life. The visit facilitated cultural exchange and contributed to the overall awareness and education of the students. This program was a commendable initiative to bridge the gap between different communities and promote cultural understanding and empathy among the youth.

5. SEMINAR FOR SHGs

The seminar for empowering Self-Help Groups in Idukki District, held in the month of November, brought together 37 second-year students to various Self-Help Group (SHG) venues across the district. The Programme is conducting in a Periodic basis. The awareness programme was organized by the Dept. of History under the guidance Dr. Jobi John, HoD of History. Self-Help Groups (SHGs) play a pivotal role in community development, particularly in rural areas like Idukki District. This seminar aimed to raise awareness among UG students about the significance of SHGs and their potential for fostering community empowerment. During the programme, attendees shared their opinions and thoughts and asked for further clarification. The Seminar was organized successfully, and it served its intended purpose of spreading awareness on the chosen topic in History.
