OVERCOMING LIMITATIONS

Presented by:

Jessy Joseph
Senior Manager
Corporate Banking Division
National Bank of Oman SAOG

My steps for overcoming limitations

In life some growth happens naturally, but sometimes we need to grow on purpose.

1. To build up self esteem – better dressing and positive affirmations
2. Deliberate efforts for shifting to phone/direct meetings or discussions rather than emails/messages
3. Joined Toastmasters club
4. Read success stories/ videos of successful personnel, especially women professionals
 - o Naina Lal Kidwai
 - o Zaliya al Balushi
 - o Vijaya Lakshmi Iyer, Sheril Sandberg, Indra Nooyi
 - o Chitra Ramakrishna, Rupa Kudwa
 - o Kaku Nakhate, Zia Mody etc
5. Decided to focus on strengths

Identifying limitations

1. Psychological barriers (Lakshmana Rekha) and limiting thoughts
2. Ignored professional dress code
3. Realized my life is not for a spectacle but for itself. What I must do is all that concerns me, not what the people think.
4. Thought success or failure depends on external factors - realized my success or failure depends on me and my thought patterns.
5. Soft skills - courage, confidence, communication and interpersonal skills are more important than all other skills.

We cannot change what we are not aware of. Once we are aware, we cannot help but change.

To all aspiring girls and boys...

1. Instead of saying "I am not ready to do that", say " I WANT TO DO THAT, I WILL LEARN BY DOING".
2. Compete with yourself. Try to bring out the best in you and you will realize, you are the best.
3. Be true to yourself
4. Keep your favorite sport always with you, practice it without fail.
5. Earmark around 50% of the time which you spend currently on academic excellence for development of soft skills.
6. Be on track for the marathon wins

and FOCUS ON YOUR STRENGTHS.

MANTRAS FOR SUCCESS

- I CAN DO IT
- I DON'T GIVE UP
- I AM THE BEST

Girls may remember

1. If you are ambitious, never be scared to admit it. It is absolutely fine to be ambitious.
2. Women's biological clock and career clock runs in the opposite direction
3. If you leave the work place, it must be your choice, so that you are content with that decision. At any time in future, if you feel you wish to come back, never hesitate to do a restart.
4. In career, you won't be considered as "as good as a man" if you are as good as a man. If you wish to excel, you need to do significantly better, perhaps twice better than a man.
5. Never discriminate yourself for being women
6. Supporting systems, health and fitness are very important.
7. Invest some time for yourself (me time).

Do you have the GRIT ?

GRIT = Passion x Perseverance

- In any walk of life, it is not the person with the highest natural ability who succeed or excel, but the person with the highest Grit quotient.
- Life is a marathon run and not a sprint run
- Whatever be the status in your life, if you have the GRIT, you can come forward and excel.
